

This Product Highlights Sheet is an important document.

- It highlights the key terms and risks of the All Market Income Portfolio (the "Portfolio"), a portfolio of AB¹ (the "Fund"), and complements the prospectus for the Fund (the "Prospectus") and the Singapore prospectus (the "Singapore Prospectus", together with the Prospectus, the "Singapore Offering Documents").²
- It is important to read the Singapore Offering Documents before deciding whether to purchase shares in the Portfolio ("Shares"). If you do not have a copy, please contact us to ask for one.
- You should not invest in the Portfolio if you do not understand it or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.
- If you wish to purchase Shares³, you will need to make an application in the manner set out in the Singapore Prospectus.

For all other Share Classes, the Board does not intend to make distributions. 	Prospectus and “Additional Share Class Details” of the Prospectus relating to the Portfolio for further information on the key product features.
Investment Strategy
STRATEGY <ul style="list-style-type: none"> In actively managing the Portfolio, the Investment Manager uses fundamental research and a proprietary quantitative analysis to flexibly adjust investment exposures across various asset classes with the goal of building an optimal risk/return portfolio in all market conditions (top-down and bottom-up approach). Under normal market conditions, the Portfolio typically invests in equity securities and debt securities of any credit quality of government and corporate issuers anywhere in the world, including Emerging Markets. The Portfolio may also seek exposure to other asset classes such as real estate, currencies and interest rates, as well as to eligible indices. The Portfolio is not limited in its exposure to equity, debt securities or currencies. The Portfolio’s equity investments may include convertible securities, depositary receipts, REITs and ETFs. The Portfolio may invest up to 30% of its assets in debt securities rated below investment grade, and up to 20% of its assets in structured products such as asset- and mortgage-backed securities (“ABSs/MBSSs”) and collateralised debt obligations. The Portfolio may be exposed to any currency. The Portfolio uses derivatives to a significant extent for hedging (reducing risks), efficient portfolio management (“EPM”) and other investment purposes (including to gain additional exposure). 	Refer to “Investment Objective, Focus and Approach” and “Derivatives and Techniques” in the relevant appendix of the Singapore Prospectus for further information on the investment strategy.
Parties Involved
WHO ARE YOU INVESTING WITH? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Investment Manager for the Portfolio is AllianceBernstein L.P., a Delaware limited partnership. Brown Brothers Harriman (Luxembourg) S.C.A. has been appointed to act as Administrator and Depositary. Refer to “Other Important Information” of the Singapore Prospectus for information on what happens if these entities become insolvent. 	Refer to “Fund Service Providers and Additional Resources” of the Prospectus for information on roles and responsibilities.
KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? The value of investments and the income from them, and therefore the value of and income from Shares of the Portfolio, can go down as well as up and you may not get back the amount you invest. These risk factors, among others, may cause you to lose some or all of your investment:	Refer to “Main Risks” of the Singapore Prospectus for information on investment risks of the Portfolio.
Market and Credit Risks
You are exposed to Emerging/Frontier Markets Risk. Emerging Markets, including frontier markets, are less established and more volatile than developed markets and more sensitive to challenging market conditions. Compared with developed markets, Emerging Markets involve higher risks, both as to frequency and intensity, particularly market, credit, liquidity, legal and currency risks.. You are exposed to Currency Risks. To the extent that the Portfolio holds assets that are denominated in currencies other than its Base Currency, any changes in currency exchange rates could reduce investment gains or income, or increase investment losses, in some cases significantly. Hedging may reduce but not eliminate currency risk.
Liquidity Risks
You are exposed to liquidity risks of the underlying fund’s investments. A security or position of the Portfolio could become hard to value, sell, or sell at the

desired time or price and as such may impact the Portfolio's ability to meet redemption requests. The Shares are not listed and can only be realised on Business Days. There is no secondary market for the Shares. All realisation requests should be submitted in the manner set out in the Singapore Prospectus. You may not be able to redeem when a redemption limit is imposed or when redemptions are suspended. A redemption limit may be imposed if requests are received to redeem more than 10% of the Shares of the Portfolio outstanding. Further, your right to redeem may be temporarily suspended under certain circumstances as set out in the Singapore Prospectus.
Product-Specific Risks
You are exposed to Derivatives Risks. Derivatives are financial contracts whose value is derived from that of an underlying asset, rate or eligible index. Small movements in the value of an underlying asset, reference rate or eligible index can create large changes in the value of a derivative, making derivatives highly volatile in general and exposing the Portfolio to potential losses significantly greater than the cost of the derivative. The Portfolio may use derivatives for various reasons, such as hedging, EPM and investment purposes. Derivatives are specialised instruments that require investment techniques and risk analyses different from those associated with traditional securities. Derivatives are subject to the risks of the underlying asset(s), typically in modified and greatly amplified form, as well as carrying their own risks. You are exposed to Equity Securities Risks. Equities can lose value rapidly, in response to such factors as activities of individual companies, general market or economic conditions, or changes in currency exchange rates. Equities typically involve higher (often significantly higher) market risks than bonds, money market instruments, or other debt securities. Equities typically represent an ownership interest in an issuer. Equity securities include common stock, preferred stock, securities convertible into common or preferred stock and equity interest in partnerships, trusts or other types of equity securities. Purchases of initial public offerings of stock may involve higher risks due to various factors including limited shares, unseasoned trading, lack of investor knowledge and lack of operating history of the issuing company. You are exposed to Debt Securities Risk. The value of most bonds and other debt securities will rise when interest rates fall and will fall when interest rates rise. A bond or money market instrument could fall in price and become more volatile and less liquid if the security's credit rating or the issuer's financial health deteriorates, or the market believes it might. Debt securities carry, inter alia, interest rate risk, credit risk and default risk.
